The Lizzy James Story:

In 2011, a California artist showed the world what she's made of. During breast cancer treatment, Lizzy channeled her energy and talent into creating unique artisan jewelry, including the original wrap bracelet. Lizzy's journey inspired her to design a collection of stylish, versatile pieces that celebrate the strength and resiliency in all of us.

FEEL GOOD ABOUT YOUR PURCHASE:

On top of supporting a company that is handmade in the USA, you can also feel good about every Lizzy James purchase knowing that Lizzy James supports 14 different charities and growing. The charities Lizzy James support include the Susan G Koman Foundation, The Special Olympics and Shelter to Soldier.
